EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

The Specification:

On page 1, para. 1, line 2, after "2001" insert – now abandoned, --.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Note that, Applicant's amendments, Applicant's arguments, and the Examiner's Amendment are sufficient to place the instant claims in condition for allowance. Furthermore, note that, as indicated in the final Office action mailed 7/18/06, remaining claims 1-13, 16, 19, and 20 all have varying effective filing dates in which the latest is 6/21/93. Thus, of the references of record, the most pertinent is O'Brien et al (US 4,268,406). O'Brien et al each liquid dishwashing detergent compositions exhibiting superior cleaning of protein and carbohydrate soils comprising an anionic surfactant, an amide, a reducing agent, a protein denaturant, and water. See Abstract. Inorganic reductive agents include hydrazine or hydroxylamine. See column 5, lines 1-20. However, O'Brien et al do not teach a method removing a resist from a substrate by contacting the substrate with a composition containing the combination of hydroxylamine, an alkanolamine, and the other requisite components of the composition in the specific amounts as recited by the instant claims.

None of the references of record, alone or in combination, teach or suggest a method of removing a resist from a substrate by contacting a substrate having a resist thereon with an aqueous remover wherein the remover contains hydroxylamine, at least one alkanolamine, and the other requisite components of the composition in the specific amounts as recited by the instant claims. Accordingly, since the prior art fails to teach or suggest such a method as recited by the instant claims, the instant claims are deemed allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
